For Sale: School

LONDON (UPI)—An advertisement in the respected Financial Times Wednesday offered for sale the equally respectable Francis Holland School for Girls.

Several dozen takers were advised it must be an April Fool joke.

A school spokesman said, "I expect it was some girl who'd got into trouble, trying to get back at the school."

General Turns Back Plane, Colonel Off, Soldiers On

TOKYO (AP)—The general who commands U.S. forces in Japan emerged as a hero Thursday — along with a spunky airman who took a protest right to the top.

Lt.-Gen. Robert W. Burns ordered a military airliner back to Japan, put aboard five non-officers on emergency leave and opened an investigation of the lieutenant-colonel they said had bumped them.

"All I can say is that as far as I'm concerned, I had nothing to do with keeping those people off the plane," said Lt.-Col. Charles Platt, Jr. He had been headed for a vacation in Hawaii.

Two soldiers were hurrying home for their mothers' funerals. Another was going home for his son's funeral.

The men were at Tachikawa air base outside Tokyo ready to board the "Pacific express" when Platt arrived with his wife and four children.

"We bumped him," said Airman 2nd Class Robert J. Kindl, who was going home for the funeral of his four-year-old son.

"He got mad, pulled rank and ordered a major underneath him to bump us.

Airman 1st Class Coye Y. Bell got Gen. Burns on the phone. The plane had taken off for Hawaii, but Burns checked the story and had the plane headed back.

TO MORE THAN 10,000 OF YOU CANADIAN HOUSEWIVES

We will pay $5 cash just for your opinion!

The Procter & Gamble Company of Canada, Ltd.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

That's right! Five dollars will be paid to more than 10,000 of you housewives from coast to coast, just for telling us what you think of our products. Why? Because you, the consumer, are the best judge of the products you use . . . and we need your opinions and suggestions to help us continue bringing you the very best products we can produce. To find out just what you think, we have launched a nationwide Consumer Research Poll.

Q. Just how do you get this $5.00?

A. By filling in a short, simple questionnaire and mailing it to Procter & Gamble. In return, we'll send you $5.00.

Q. How do you get the questionnaire?

A. Look for the special "5-star" seal on the seven famous Procter & Gamble products shown below. More than 10,000 of these special packages contain questionnaires.

Q. Does that mean every "5-star" package has a questionnaire?

A. No, but more than 10,000 of them do—and they've been distributed all over Canada to give us a country-wide cross-section of opinion.

Q. What's in this questionnaire?

A. A few simple questions asking for your opinion about our products.

Q. Are these "5-star" packages in stores now?

A. Yes, in stores all over Canada. Remember, if the "5-star" package you buy contains a questionnaire, you will be paid $5.00 for answering it—$5.00 for helping us continue to develop the very finest products you can buy.
